ROMAN REZNITSKY

I AM DEVELOPING A VISUAL PHILOSOPHY

Roman Reznitsky (born 1978), contemporary Israeli artist. Roman has completed an art school (6 years old).

In 2005 he graduated from the Faculty of Architecture and Construction.

In 2018, he joined the Union of Artists of Israel.

I am developing a visual philosophy, working in pop art and dot art styles. Pop art has become the foundation of my brand: luminous, relevant and erotic works metaphorically represent the essence of modern society. Dot art is a new direction and as far as I see this is already a big success; in black and white, strict and concise paintings, the main character and the starting point is the Eye that symbolizes a new vision of the world.

I have had solo and group exhibitions in Israel, Great Britain, France and Russia, and have participated in various Art fairs. I also have collaboration experience. Furthermore, I am currently having an exhibition at the Venice Biennale.

ROMEO AND JULIET

150x150, 2023, Canvas, acrylic paint

The story of love, the story of the conflict.

My same-name work is a declaration of love. Love for Italy and its geniuses. Love for creativity. And in this way, I am Romeo, who is in love with the beauty of our world.

But where is Juliet? Here is her profile in the window - the Madonna profile portrayed by great Leonardo. Like a light butterfly, her air kiss flies to beloved Romeo - the beautiful marble statue of David by Michelangelo.

But life and art also mean an eternal struggle, a constant conflict. The struggle between the Montagues and the Capulets. The eternal rivalry and confrontation of da Vinci and Michelangelo. The light defeats the shadow. And only Madonna in the window is full of love and expectation. Will her beloved Romeo come?

For example, along this pedestrian crossing, which symbolizes my creative way.

A cosy chair waits in vain in the cool shade outside the Shakespeare & Co. shop. The store is closed, the siesta invites you to relax. But I have stepped into the unknown and my journey has already begun.

TEXTURED BRUSHSTROKES

Massive acrylic paint brush strokes form the canvas relief. The art image is applied with clear and confident lines. It closes rich colors into contrasting contours and creates multilayered perception of each picture.

DOT ART LIMITED EDITION

Of course, I'm not going to give up the pop art style that has already become "my own". But I want to bring something fundamentally new to my art , something absolutely opposite , but at the same time very close to me.

DOT_ART_3

150x150, 2022, Canvas, acrylic paint

I conceived three paintings in the style of dot art and mentally combined them with a common theme: The eye as a new way of looking at the world, art, creativity.

SCULPTURE «COMMUNICATION»

2024 Biennale di Venezia,
gallery AKNEYE

Ramo De La Tana, 2124a,
Venice, Italy 2024

What gives us previously unknown thoughts, feelings, emotions? Communication, of course. Communication is a look at the new and unexpected things. And I try to discover this new one in sculpture.

The eye represents knowledge of the world through something visible. But... this eye is unusual. It has the shape of lips. Building on the shape of an object, I demonstrate that both eyes and lips tell us about the same thing - about communication. People exchange information and emotions, and do this with the help of different senses. Eyes are in lips, lips are in eyes... What is not said in words can be expressed with a glance. This is my art philosophy, this is the way I communicate with my audience. The brightness of the colors combined in the sculpture is my own recognizable style. It is a hint of the information diversity that we learn through communication.

Fashion Collection

IN MY VIEW, COLLABORATION WITH VARIOUS BRANDS IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO MANIFEST ONESELF MORE BRIGHTLY.
IT OPENS UP SPACE FOR IMAGINATION
AND NEW VISION.

Fashion Collection

What happens when Art meets
Fashion? Successful collaboration.

The FCEIGHT brand, built on collaborations, presented the result of our mutual work.

Fashion Collection

I'm against the involvement of my paintings in the mass-market. I am for interesting and limited collections. This is how the Reznitsky X FCEIGHT collaboration turned out, I believe.

BED LINEN

The collaboration with the well-known bed linen brand is in progress. What associations can arise here?
Relaxation, comfort, dreams, romance...
